THE BEST IN THE WORLD

HOTELS, CRUISES, AIRLINES, ISLANDS, CITIES

Twenty years ago, travelers faced a world of either/or: Go somewhere remote and you sacrificed luxury. Opt for a beach and forget great food. Take a safari and say good-bye to style. No wonder the first annual Condé Nast Traveler readers' poll, in 1988, listed just 20 hotels with ratings above 70.0, all of them in celebrated cities like Hong Kong and Los Angeles.

Fast-forward to 2007. Our twentieth annual Readers' Choice Awards includes places from Rajasthan to Botswana, Dubai to Tasmania—214 of which score above 90.0. In the past two decades, the variety and depth of destinations have steadily grown, and these awards have reflected the changes. In the early '90s, we listed 110 award winners; this year, that number is 785, and the lowest score in the Top 100 is a stratospheric 92.6.

What hasn't changed is you—your passion for travel, your uncompromising standards, your global savvy. Winners this year range from the nineteenth-century classic Hotel Imperial in Vienna to the six-month-old Regent Beijing. Such an impressive array can only be explained by another weighty stat: Since 1988, more than half a million readers—532,569, in fact—have participated in this annual poll, resulting in awards to the dozens of cities and islands, the hundreds of cruise ships and airlines, and the thousands of hotels and resorts that have transformed the world of either/or to a world rich with choices.
